

Constitution of the Cape Cod Association, in Boston.

Its Object — To encourage and promote among all the native born and descended of Cape Cod, — temperance, industry, sincerity, good humor, charity, the social affections and generous sentiments.

Article I.

All natives of Cape Cod and their descendants, who are residents of Boston and its vicinity, may become members on signing this constitution, and conforming to the By-Laws. Each member shall pay three dollars on admission, for the first year, and thereafter three dollars annually so long as he shall continue a member.

Article II.

Any person paying fifty dollars shall become a life member, and may direct to what object of the

see Article XVI

Association his subscription shall be appropriated; and whenever five hundred dollars shall be raised by life subscriptions or donations, it shall be set apart as a fund, to be appropriated as the Association may direct by its By-Laws, with the consent of such life subscribers and donors.

Article III.

Manuscript
The Officers of the Association shall consist of a President, ^{one} ~~thirteen~~ Vice Presidents, a Treasurer, a Recording Secretary, and a ^{out} ~~corresponding~~ Secretary. The Board of Officers shall constitute a Standing Committee, a majority of whom shall form a quorum for business, and may hold meetings at such times as they may appoint. They shall annually at their first meeting elect an Executive Committee of four, to manage the concerns of the Association, and to recommend such measures as they shall think proper for the general benefit, of which Committee, the Treasurer and Secretaries shall be additional members, ex officio.

Amended Nov. 12, 1906

Article IV.

The Board of Officers may form By-Laws for the management of the concerns of the Association, which shall take effect if adopted at any regular meeting of the Association by a vote of two-thirds present.

Article V.

The Recording Secretary shall keep a correct account of the proceedings of the Association, and of the Board of Officers, which shall be open to the inspection of the members. The Corresponding Secretary shall make and preserve all communications and matters of interest to the Association. The Treasurer shall keep the money and funds of the Association, and pay out the same in pursuance of the orders of the Executive Committee, and render an account thereof annually at a meeting of the Association.

Article VI.

An annual Meeting for the choice of Officers and transaction of business shall be held on the eleventh of November, the anniversary of the adoption of the first written Constitution of Government among men, which was framed on board the May Flower, in the Harbor of Provincetown, 1620. Quarterly Meetings shall be held on the eleventh days of February,

May and August.

Article VII.

The Quarterly Meeting in August may be held at any place on Cape Cod which the Board of Officers shall designate

Article VIII.

The receipts, beyond the necessary expenses of the Association, shall be invested by the Treasurer, to be reserved for a fund that shall be appropriated and applied, at such time and for such general purpose or definite object as the Association at an annual meeting shall devise by some provision in amendment of the Constitution. Voluntary subscriptions and donations shall be received and appropriated in aid of such fund

Article IX.

The regular meetings of the Association shall be notified by publication in some newspaper in Boston, and the members present shall constitute a quorum for transacting business. The Constitution may be amended at any regular meeting of the Association

See Annual Meeting
Nov. 11 & 12 for amendment to this article.

by a vote of two-thirds present, provided notice of such amendment shall have been given to the Board of Officers at a Meeting of the Board previous to the Meeting of the Association at which such proposed amendment shall be considered; but no amendment of the Constitution shall be made unless at least twenty five members present shall vote for such amendment (See record of Annual Meeting held Nov. 11. 1876)

25 reduced to 15

Article X.

All persons who have subscribed the agreement to form this Association shall become members on signing this Constitution, as is provided in the first Article; and thereafter, any person coming within the rule of membership, who shall present his name to any member of the Executive Committee, shall be admitted a member of the Association on the approval of the Executive Committee, and on complying with the provisions of the first Article.

Article XI.

Honorary Members may be admitted by a vote of the Association at any regular meeting.

Article XII.

The names of members who shall have neglected to pay their annual subscriptions for more than one year, or who do not comply with the provisions of the Constitution and By-Laws, shall be reported annually by the Treasurer, and shall be stricken from the list of members, or suspended, if the Association shall so direct by their vote.

Article XIII.

Any member who shall have paid the sum of fifty dollars in annual subscriptions or otherwise, shall be entitled, if in needful circumstances in the opinion of the Executive Committee, to receive that amount from the Association at such times and in such sums as the Executive Committee may direct; and the like sum shall be paid in like manner to the widow or children of a deceased member who shall have paid in the sum of fifty dollars, if left in needful circumstances.

Article XIV.

The members of the Executive Committee shall be, ex officio, members of the Board of Officers

May 11
1882

Article XV.

The income hereafter arising from the fund held under the provisions of Article VIII of the Constitution, is hereby appropriated, and shall be applied to the collegiate or technological education of youths of Cape Cod origin, in such manner and to such extent as the Executive Committee may determine.

Nov
11th
1876

Article XVI.

The fund that has accrued under provisions of Article II shall be incorporated with the General Fund created under Article VIII and the income arising from the fund thus created, shall, after paying necessary and proper expenses, be expended as provided by Article XV, and all of Article II, after the words "Any person paying fifty dollars shall" "become a life member," is hereby repealed.

Nov. 11. 1885.

By Laws.

1.

May 11 The names of all persons proposed for Honorary Membership, must first be submitted to the Executive Committee; and if approved by them, the Committee shall report the names of such persons as candidates at the next quarterly meeting of the Association.
